Peace Sunday & Pax Christi

Collection:

Next Sunday, 17th January is 'Peace Sunday' a Day of Special Prayer for World Peace. It is a call and reminder to all who profess faith in Christ to be 'peacemakers'; this especially needed in today's world. Across our Four Parishes LPA we will hold a retiring Collection for the Catholic Lay Organisation 'Pax Christi' who work to promote attitudes of Peace, Justice and Recollection among peoples. Hopefully, envelopes will be available this weekend.

Retired Priests Collection:

In January we are asked by Bishop Brian to hold the Collection for the Retired Priests of our Diocese. This Collection will take place at St Mary's this weekend and at St Saviour's, Our Lady's & St Bernard's on the weekend of 30th/31st January.

Photographs on our LPA Web Site:

Our LPA Web Site 'www.rcchep.co.uk' features photographs and articles about events which take place in our Parishes; these are prepared in accordance with our Diocesan Policy for the protection of Children and Vulnerable Adults with the necessary permission procedures undertaken. Other general photographs feature over 18 adults taking part in our various events. If anyone would rather not have their photograph displayed, please contact the LPA Office on 'parishesoff@rcchep.co.uk' or (0151) 347 9342. Otherwise see if you can spot yourself in the Gallery Section!

SVP Youth Group. We now have a very active LPA Group formed just before Christmas. They have already helped in Signing of Justice and Peace

Cards, School Fair, Collections etc. They are hoping to host a family fun day during the next half term. To raise funds for this venture they will be selling cakes after Masses this weekend. Please be generous showing your support for this group.

ST MARY'S**

Our next Children's Liturgy will take place this Sunday during the 9.30 Mass. This will also be the next session for the children doing the Sacramental Programme. Do please encourage parents to bring their young children so that they can join in.

This Sunday we shall hold a retiring collect for the support of our retired priests' fund. There are some leaflets to pick up at the back of church. Next Sunday is a day of special prayer for World Peace; there will be a retiring collection for the important work of Pax Christi.

Please note that next Saturday marks the tenth anniversary of the death of Fr Fee, who served this parish community for so many years.

Our School Mass will begin again this Tuesday 12th January.

Parish Support Group The next meeting of our Parish Support Group will be held in the Stanley Hall this Monday evening, 11th January at 7.30.

OUR LADY'S
ST BERNARD'S

Christmas and New Year thanks:

Father Niall & Deacon Paul would like to thank all at Our Lady's & St. Bernard's for their kind Christmas Gifts and Greetings that were sent. It is greatly appreciated. Thanks to all who helped at both Churches in so many ways, both in the foreground and background so to speak, to make our Churches ready for Christmas and New Year and in making our Services such special occasions. Listing folk and jobs might risk leaving someone out by mistake, so we hope you'll understand if we say to all 'Thank You'. Your effort, kindness, generosity and support is greatly valued and appreciated. God bless you all in the New Year.

Bad Weather Problems: Obviously the Snow, and perhaps worse, the following Freeze, is causing a lot of regular events to be re-scheduled or cancelled. We will keep daily Masses, but do please be careful on the approaches to both Churches, especially Our Lady's Car Park, and please don't worry if you can't get out because of these conditions. Various Group

Leaders will be in touch regarding when your Groups are meeting etc. For this coming week there will be:

No Holy Hour on Tuesday (12th) at Our Lady's

Children's Liturgy Leaders Meeting will now be on Tuesday, 19th January, 7.30pm in the 'Prayer Room'. If any over 18 adults would still like to help with the Children's Liturgy please see Father Niall or Deacon Paul.
