St Mary's School Ofsted Report A few weeks ago our school had a visit from the OFSTED inspectors. They have just published their report on the school. In September 2009, as you may have seen in the news, Ofsted raised their standards' thresholds considerably, making it more difficult for schools to achieve higher grades. Their report on St Mary of the Angels' indicates all areas good or outstanding...in fact, there are eight outstanding areas. The report is the very best one, of any primary school, in the whole of the Diocese, since the new Ofsted regime began. Congratulations to the children, head teacher, teachers and all the support staff, who work so hard together to achieve these excellent standards.

Music Group The Music Group has decided to meet after Mass on the Second and Fourth Sundays of the month.
