

ELLESMERE PORT & HOOTON

Our Lady Star of the Sea & St Bernard | St Saviour & St Mary of the Angels

This Sunday, the Lord warns us about putting our trust in what we own. It is not material possessions that ought to give us a sense of security or worth but our trust should be in God alone. Our word 'possessions' which signifies what we own should warn us in and of itself: how quickly what we own can 'possess' us, if we are not careful. A bigger house, a faster car, more money: all of these things can become so many 'gods' that we desire. We take nothing with us when we die. We must use the blessings we have in this life to seek to bless others who have less than we do. In this way we ensure that we are not possessed by what we possess, but rather - after the example of Jesus - use what we have to bless others in turn.
